

State and Territory Advisory Committees' Education Days 2024

South Australia

Friday 8 November 2024

Glenelg Pier Hotel

Breakfast Symposium presented by Coloplast

Sadiq Aljoffri Market Manager, Coloplast

What a girl wants – Insights into challenges faced by female IC users

Donna Fisher Clinical Nurse Advisor, Coloplast

Bowel

Mrs Allison Bryant Physiotherapy Management of the Patient with Colorectal Pelvic Floor Dysfunction

Dr Michelle Thomas Trans Anal Irrigation for Faecal Incontinence

Dr Anthony Tang Irritable Bowel Disorder and The Pelvic Floor

Prolapse

Alexandra Emerson Setting up a Multidisciplinary Team Service - Pelvic Mesh Clinic

Mrs Jenny Phillips
Mrs Rose Green Physiotherapy-led pessary management of POP in a tertiary public hospital

Dr Tanaka Dune Mesh Excision – When to do it and When not to do it

Jacqueline Murray Mesh Journey – A Consumer Perspective

Sexology

Selma van Diest What Bedroom Blues: When Performance Anxiety Takes Away the Sexual Fun

Ms Kerry Santoro Post-Prostatectomy Erectile Dysfunction - A Prostate Cancer Specialist Nurse Perspective

Ms Ann Traeger-Spees Is There Evidence for Pelvic Floor Exercises in the Treatment of Erectile Dysfunction?

Bladder

A/Prof Michael O'Callaghan Prostate Cancer and Urinary Incontinence - Understanding Anatomy and Research

Dr Ashani Couchmann Post Prostatectomy & Incontinence, and the Benefit of Having an In-house Specialist General Practitioner

Practitioner Wellness

Ms Silvana Forlini Practitioner Wellness

Register now to attend South Australia's leading professional development event for continence health continence.org.au/STAC-education-days

Early Bird end 18 October 2024